

Dinner and a Movie! Enjoy Sandwiches and Screening of 'Unerased: Asian Voices of Cape Cod'

Fri, Nov 14, 5:30pm-8:00pm EST

Harwich Community Center: 100 Oak St, Harwich, MA 02645

This approximately 40-minute film amplifies and highlights the voices and experiences of diverse members of our Asian community living or growing up on Cape Cod. This truly collaborative documentary project is personal to both Tso Haidas and Magyar. Magyar grew up in Sandwich, MA, and is half-Japanese and half-Caucasian. Tso Haidas moved to Cape Cod ten years ago and is first-generation Chinese-Canadian.

Erica Tso Haidas and some of the people in the film, will be available after the screening for some follow up questions from our attendees.

No Kings Protest/Visibility Nov 15, 12-1pm, Hyannis Airport Rotary

NO KINGS!! WE WILL CONTINUE TO SEND A MESSAGE AND CLAIM OUR RIGHT TO PROTEST!!

Join us to continue to protest the want-to-be Monarch who is building his castle in OUR HOUSE. It's important that we continue to send a message to Trump and MAGA that we are not going to back down.

Bring a sign, wear a costume, or hold one of our flags and banners.

Let's continue to build community.

We are going to continue the momentum with NO KINGS protests twice a month. This is the first – let's show the MAGA and Trump we won't back down. We will hold a protest the first and third Saturday from 12 noon – 1pm, beginning 11/15 at the Airport Rotary. Let's launch these new protests with a crowd!! Bring a friend, bring family, grab a neighbor! We will also collect food and personal care items for the Veterans Food Pantry and postcard stamps and/or cash for stamps for our postcarding projects.

WE HAVE FRIENDS EVERYWHERE

Potluck Lunch – A Community Celebration – Nov 23, West Barnstable

Come to socialize and relax with like-minded people and visit with the survivor of the attack after our Oct 18, NO KINGS! protest.

Sun, Nov 23, 12:30pm-3:00pm EST
West Barnstable Community Center

Join us to celebrate this year we've spent doing important work and building a community. Despite the darkness, the light is the new friends we are making and the work we are doing.

And, we will welcome a special member of our community, Jeff Smith, who was the victim of an assault following our October 18, NO KINGS! protest. Bring a card or note. We will talk to him about the case and how we can support him. We will discuss attending the assailant's court date, December 2.
